Chick-fil-A opens Thursday in Uptown Boca, west Boca's new retail and residential complex. Hours are 6 a.m. to 10 p.m., Monday through Saturday, closed Sundays.

The new fast-food location has a double drive-thru. Customers can pick up curbside and order through their mobile app. But no inside dining yet. "As states begin to ease restrictions on the closure of local businesses, new Chick-fil-A restaurants will take additional time to review operations and ensure the necessary precautions are in place to protect guests and team members before opening their dining rooms," corporate said in a statement.

Jobs wise, the business at 9536 Glades Road will employ about 80 full- and part-time team members, a corporate announcement said.

This is the first restaurant to open in Uptown Boca between Lyons Road and State Road 7. The signs are up for Olive U Mediterranean Grill, BurgerFi and Just Salad. Other restaurant tenants coming in are Bolay, Zen Sushi, Naked Taco, Lazy Dog, Lynora's Italian restaurant and Sloan's Ice Cream, according to Uptown Boca.

REI Co-op outdoor gear and SportClips Haircuts have opened. Signs are also up for Amazing Lash Studio and The Joint Chiropractic. No opening date announced yet for Silverspot Cinema.

Chick-fil-A West Boca is locally owned and operated by Paul Kiedis, who started as a team member with Chick-fil-A in West Palm Beach and earned a degree at Florida Atlantic University. Later in his career with the company, Kiedis became the operator at Chick-fil-A at Town Center at Boca Raton for over five years.
